ELMER NOFFSINGER WAS IN THE CITY

Elmer Noffsinger, the bloodhound trainer of the dogs that tracked Hez Rasco last November, was in Maryville Friday night on his way to Jameson, Mo. He came in on the Burlington train and transferred to the Wabash. Sheriff Tilson and Deputy Sheriff Evans called on Mr. Noffsinger while in the city. Mr. Noffsinger had two different hounds from the ones he used in trailing Rasco.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Christy of Creston, Ia., who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Christy's sister, Mrs. G. W. Boatman, the past week, left for their home Saturday.

Leland Bushey, Ersel Kinman and Lloyd Lamar of Elmo were in Maryville Saturday. They are members of the senior class of the Elmo high school.

BOARD VISITED COUNTY POOR FARM

F. V. Hensleigh and I. H. Taggart of Clarinda, and Mr. Freed of near College Springs, the board of supervisors of Page county, Iowa, were in Maryville Friday inspecting the county farm. They took special interest in the building, and also spent an hour or two inspecting the construction of the Normal building, as they are planning the erection of a new building on the Page county poor farm, the old one having been destroyed by fire last week. One of the inmates, being unable to get out of the build by himself, was burned to death before aid could be sent to him.

Page county has always been famed for her model poor farm, and although the old building was a frame one, it was kept in the most sanitary condition, the grounds and farms were given the best of care, and the inmates were always given the best of food and shelter. With the erection of a modern building it will be hard to find a better institution of that kind in the country.

WILL REPEAL TAX

COUNCIL ACTION FRIDAY FORESHADOWS REPEAL OF LAW.

NINTH STREET UP AGAIN

Ordinance Opening Entrance to Normal Grounds Must Be Repassed to Correct Technical Error.

An interesting meeting of the city council was held Friday night, being the first meeting of the new council, composed of the new members elected Tuesday and the hold-over members.

Before the retiring members left their places Mayor Robey, on behalf of the city, thanked Henry Hudson and John Signs for the valuable service they had given the city, and said he very much regretted to see them leave. Mr. Hudson has been a member of the council for ten years, serving from time to time. He was a member of the board when the city water franchise came up, over twenty years ago, also a member when the electric light proposition was up many years ago.

A pool license was granted by the board to C. B. Yoe.

A sidewalk petition was granted for a sidewalk on North Mulberry street, from Hayes' to L. R. Holt's property, on the west side of the street. An ordinance by the city attorney will be drawn and presented to the board at a meeting soon.

Owing to an error in the minutes the work of opening Ninth street will have to be gone over again. The city has opened the streets up to the Wabash railroad property, but to go over the railroad the council will have to follow the legal way. Mayor Robey appointed five commissioners to assess the benefits and damages to the railroad company, and instructed that they get busy at once to do this. He appointed as commissioners S. G. Gillam, Henry Hudson, Nick Sturm, J. F. Cook and Ed C. Curfman. The commissioners will make their report at the next meeting of the council and the ordinance will then be passed formally opening this street to the Normal grounds.

The monthly reports of the police judge, city marshal, city weighmaster and the city collector were received and placed on file.

Signs will be put up by Mayor Robey and the street commissioner calling attention to the ordinance in regard to keeping off the parkways. Several property owners have been making complaints. On one parkway on North Main street the people have been walking across it, making a beaten path.

The street commissioner was ordered by the council to confer with E. H. Bainum in regard to flushing and sprinkling the streets the coming summer. The city has a new flushing machine, and it is understood that Mr. Bainum will operate it if the city will furnish the water.

The members of the city council elected Tuesday were then installed, being Henry Foster from the First, C. D. Hooker from the Second, J. H. Gray from the Third and Louis Gram from the Fourth. Mayor Robey appointed Mr. Hooker a member of the committees that Henry Hudson was on, and Mr. Gray a member of the committees that Mr. Signs was on.

A discussion of the vehicle tax ordinance was had, and a motion was made to have an ordinance drawn repealing the law. It carried by a 4 to 3 vote, those voting to repeal it being Louis Gram, Frank Ewing, John H. Gray and C. D. Hooker. Those opposed to it were Henry Foster, O. K. Herndon and F. C. Conrad. The members opposed to the motion would like to see certain sections of the law repealed, but were in favor of the law as a whole.

The city hall matter was discussed at some length, and it was the opinion of the board that the proposition should be submitted to the people. Petitions have been circulated the last few days and quite a number of people have signed them. The council will probably take some action on the matter in the near future.

To Visit Their Minister Son.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Snodgrass of Shambaugh, Ia., were in Maryville Saturday forenoon on their way to Hopkins to visit their son, Rev. R. C. Snodgrass, who is pastor of the Christian church at Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Wray and daughters went to Pickering Friday night to visit over Sunday with Mr. Wray's parents.

ARCHITECTS HERE

AND INSPECTED THE NORMAL BUILDING.

MADE ITEMIZED ACCOUNT

Of the Work Uncompleted and of the Work That Will Have to Be Done Over.

J. H. Felt and his partner, Mr. Foster, of Kansas City, architects for the Normal building, were in Maryville Saturday in conference with President Blagg of the board of regents.

While here they inspected the Normal building and made out an itemized statement of the uncompleted work that still remains to be done and that Contractor Marshall refuses to finish. Another itemized account was made of the completed work which will have to be taken out on account of not coming up to specifications. Some of this work will take in the cement steps to the front of the building and a part of the cement floors, some woodwork and a good many other items.

The itemized accounts of the work will be left in the hands of the board of regents, and at a meeting to be held soon the board will let the contract, advertising for bids to commence next week.

It is the opinion that the board of regents will have enough left from the Marshall contract, which amounts to $11,500, to pay for the work that remains to be completed. This amount has been retained by the board from the Marshall contract amount, and if Marshall had completed the building according to specifications he would have been entitled to it.

Contractor Marshall, at home in Kansas City, refuses to talk about the matter.

Cook, Cummins & Dawson, attorneys for the board of regents, have advised Marshall's bonding company in Baltimore of the state of affairs.

RETURNED FROM WESTERN TRIP

Thomas Young of near Bedison arrived in the city Saturday noon from a five months' sojourn in the west. He visited his sister, Miss Lucretia Young, in Los Angeles. Miss Young has been in the west for several years. Mr. Young visited all of the principal cities of California, and on his return spent two days in the grand canon of Arizano. At Fresno, Cal., he visited Rev. Charles L. Beal and his mother. He says that the church of which Rev. Beal is pastor is preparing to build a new church building. The increase in regular church attendance since his pastorate began, less than a year ago, has made this necessary. They are at present worshiping in a tent, which is larger than the present church building.

Robert L. Rice of Pickering was in the city a short time Saturday. He was returning home from Barnard where he has been to see his niece, Mrs. Myrtle Outs, who has been very sick with a threatening case of pneumonia.

Taylor, Condon, Robinson and Doc Miller were the runners on the high school's relay team. The training school team was in the lead all of the time until the last eighth of a mile when Taylor forged ahead and won the race for the high school.

The meet was a decided success and the boys made some pretty good records, considering the fact that they had had practically no coaching.

The party was planned as a surprise for Miss Gladys, and was very successfully carried out. Sixteen of her young friends were at her home to meet her on her arrival from school. Progressive dominoes were played and during the games the hostess served lemon sherbet and candies. Mary Lewis won the prize at dominoes, a dainty Easter basket filled with marshmallows. The booby prize, an Easter egg and rabbit, went to Elfreida Linville. After the games the guests went to the dining room to witness the cutting of the beautiful birthday cake by the guest of honor. The cake was lighted by fourteen candles. As she blew out each candle she made the best wish she could think of. After the cake was cut it was served with ice cream by Mrs. Aley, assisted by her niece, Mrs. John M. Lytle of Sarnia, Canada, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Owen. Mrs. Lytle gave several piano numbers while the guests were enjoying the games and refreshments, and Mr. Lytle sang. SENATOR MARTIN MINORITY LEADER

Chosen Permanent Caucus Chairman by Vote of 21 to 16.

SHIVELY MADE VICE CHAIRMAN

Progressive Candidate, Backed by Bryan, Forced to Take Secondary Position—Chilton of West Virginia Elected Secretary of Caucus.

Washington, April 8.—Senator Martin of Virginia, at the Democratic caucus, was selected as permanent caucus chairman and minority leader during the present congress. He received 21 out of the 37 votes cast, 16 going to Senator Benjamin F. Shively of Indiana, who was then elected vice chairman.

Senator W. W. Chilton of West Virginia was elected secretary of the caucus, the two last named places having been filled by acclamation. Senator Owen declined a re-election as secretary.

The expected long contest did not develop. Prior to the session the progressive Democrats, as the followers of William Jennings Bryan prefer to be designated, met in the office of Senator Owen to canvass the situation. Several found themselves in an embarrassing position because of pledges made many weeks ago that they would support Mr. Martin.

It was decided that the progressives should vote for Senator Newlands of Nevada, as Senators Culberson of Texas and Stone of Missouri both declined to become candidates. The plan was changed in the caucus, however, when it was learned that Mr. Shively, who was the vice chairman under the leadership of Senator Money during the last congress, would not object to receiving the complimentary vote of those who would not vote for Mr. Martin.

Martin First Progressive Man.

Several of the progressives conceded that Senator Martin could not be defeated. Failure to upset his candidacy was due partly to his having been originally brought out as the candidate of the Bryan following, led by Senator Stone, to prevent the election of either Senators Bailey or Bacon. Both of these senators, generally known as the regulars, were opposed by the progressives.

It seemed for a time that Mr. Martin would be elected unanimously, but Mr. Bryan wanted an out and out progressive named and frankly told some of the new Democratic senators that they were throwing away their opportunities.

Mr. Martin was nominated by Senator Clarke of Arkansas and Senator Shively by Senator Kern of Indiana, the running mate of Mr. Bryan in the last campaign.

Senator Stone seconded the Shively nomination. The thirty-seven votes cast account for the Democratic strength except four. Senators Tillman of South Carolina, Terrell of Georgia and Shively were absent because of illness, and Senator Martin did not vote.

The roll call follows:

For Martin—Bacon, Bailey, Bankhead, Bryan (Fla.), Chilton, Clarke, Culberson, Fletcher, Foster, Johnston, Overman, Paynter, Percy, Rayner, Simmons, Smith (Md.), Swanson, Taylor, Thornton, Watson and Williams.

For Shively—Chamberlain, Davis, Gore, Hitchcock, Johnson (Me.), Kern, Lea, Martine, Myers, Newlands, O'Gorman, Owen, Pomerene, Reed, Smith (S. C.) and Stone.

The fact that the battle had been fought in advance of the caucus enabled the Democrats to keep in the background all of the Bryan and anti Bryan sentiment manifested during the preliminary scrimmages.

FIFTY MINERS ARE ENTOMBED

Interior of Pancoast Colliery Near Scranton is Burning.

RESCUERS FIND THREE BODIES

Officials Say There Is No Hope of Any Being Saved—Rescued Miner Says Workings Are a Seething Furnace—Tells of Fire's Work.

Scranton, Pa., April 8.—Fifty men and boys, including two foremen, are imprisoned and in all likelihood dead as the result of a fire in the Pancoast mine in Throop, near here.

Rescuers pushed past the fire and found three bodies. Officials and rescuers say there is no hope of any of the men being alive.

The government rescue crew, with oxygen helmets and other equipment, is on the ground. There are two openings to the mine, under the law of the state, but the fire is so located that escape has been entirely cut off.

The fire started in the engine room and communicated with a number of dust-covered and oil-soaked mine cars, which burned fiercely. Added to this was the fear that a serious explosion might occur if the flames should reach a pocket of gas. The rescuers are making slow progress and relief crews are constantly being sent into the mine.

There were 300 men in the mine when the fire started and all escaped except one party, which was in a blind gangway beyond the engine house. Two men who were at work in the engine house and who got out, reported the imprisonment of fifty of their fellow workmen.

One of the men rescued was James Vickers, a fireboss. He reported the portion of the mine was a seething furnace. The roof is falling, the coal is on fire and the timber holding up the roof of the gangway is being eaten away by the flames. Vickers was overcome by smoke and was found by rescuers, who took him to the mine hospital and revived him with difficulty.

Vickers was carried into the office of the coal company and physicians attended him. He gave it as his opinion that all the men in the mine are dead.

"They perished hours ago," he said. "No one could live in a place like that. The workings are a furnace and are full of smoke."

200 CHINESE AT ENSENADA

Patrol of Border Reveals Magnitude of Smuggling in Coolies.

San Diego, Cal., April 8.—With every foot of the Mexican boundary patrolled by United States troops, while a fleet of war craft of all kinds is operating outside of San Diego harbor, the smuggling of Chinese across the boundary has been made a too hazardous undertaking as a result of the military and naval mobilization.

Chinese merchants of San Diego shipped 100 mats of rice by steamer to Ensenada, the capital of Lower California, where 200 stranded Chinese are on the verge of starvation. Ensenada being a port near the American line, has long been a center of smuggling operations, and the fact that these 200 Asiatics have accumulated there since the order of troops to the boundary to prevent filibustering, illustrates the extent to which these operations are carried on ordinarily.

Without hope of effecting an entrance to this country in the near future, the Chinese now at Ensenada are in a sorry plight and are appealing to their countrymen in California for assistance.

RAID AMERICAN RANCHES

Stanley Williams and Band Terrorizing Citizens of Lower California.

Calexico, Cal., April 8.—Stanley Williams and his rebel band of eighty men, stationed at Algodines, a few miles east of Mexicali, began a career of robbery and terrorism on the American ranches located in Lower California. The loot of the American's band is reported already to amount to more than $10,000. United States citizens have appealed to the American troops here for help. Williams is said to have been a former quartermaster sergeant in the United States army and is charged with desertion. All of his followers are Americans.

Reports of the defeat and rout of Simon Berthold and his band of sixty-five rebels at Alamo, seventy-five miles south of Mexicali, are confirmed by fugitives.

Wounded Men in Boxcars.

El Paso, Tex., April 8.—Eighty-three wounded and a number of prisoners taken by the federals at Casas Grandes were brought into Juarez. The wounded lay prone in boxcars, but were well cared for by the escort, which numbered about 200. With the latter were two field pieces and two rapid fire guns.

GRAY HAIRS BANISHED.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy and gradually restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days on account of it souring quickly. This objection has been overcome and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle and is recommended and sold by

More Sensational Scenes in Trial of Camorrists.

FASTS FOR FORTY-EIGHT HOURS

Court Orders Vitozzi to Eat Yolks of Half a Dozen Eggs—Indignant at "Profanation" of Lock of His Mother's Hair—Falls in Faint.

Viterbo, Italy, April 8.—Again the trial of the Camorrists was interrupted when Ciro Vitozzi, the accused priest, wearied by a fast, fainted. He was under interrogation and had worked himself into such a state of mental and physical exhaustion that he tumbled against the steel bars of the prisoners' cage.

Lawyers and Carabineers rushed to his assistance, and in the confusion President Bianchi declared the sitting suspended. At the same time the court ordered Vitozzi to break his fast with the yolks of half a dozen eggs.

The climax came opportunely for Vitozzi, following his declaration that he had abstained from food for forty-eight hours. He had been telling a story of his alleged persecution in prison and the recital was not without dramatic effect.

"With me in my cell," said the priest, "I had a lock of hair from the head of that holy soul, my mother. This was taken from me on the order of a magistrate, who insisted that the hair was that of some woman companion of mine. What nonsense! Why, it was even gray. Can any one imagine a greater profanation?"

Here the accused man invoked the soul of his mother in support of his statement and the recollection of what he described as the insults to her memory overwhelming him, he was seized with a fit of weeping. Between his sobs he cried out:

"I have been fasting for forty-eight hours, supported during my whole interrogation by divine power." With the words he collapsed.

WAINWRIGHT SURRENDERS

Brewer Whom Folk Could Not Get Extradited Returns to St. Louis.

St. Louis, April 8.—Ellis Wainwright, a millionaire brewer, who was in Europe when he was indicted in 1901 on a charge of bribery in connection with a street railway franchise, surrendered to the sheriff. He was released on $20,000 bonds.

Wainwright was abroad when former Circuit Attorney Joseph W. Folk, who later became governor, began probing the bribery scandals in St. Louis. He was one of the directors of the St. Louis and Suburban Railroad company, whose name, it is alleged, was signed to notes for $135,000 to secure the passage of a franchise bill.

Wainwright continued to reside in Paris. Efforts were made by Folk to extradite him, but they were unsuccessful and Wainwright's friends have tried to get the indictment nolle prossed.

The indictment was returned on the testimony before the grand jury of Charles H. Turner, former president of the Suburban railroad, now dead. The transcript of the testimony has been kept in a safe deposit vault.

Former Governor Folk, who as circuit attorney obtained the indictment, was retained a year ago as special prosecutor in case Wainwright should return.
